

BandNet® Tubular Elastic Dressing Retainer

BandNet Tubular Elastic Dressing Retainer is a tubular, poly-covered, nylon and rubber stretch net. It is used to hold primary dressings in place with gentle pressure rather than adhesive tape. BandNet is suitable for a range of applications including post-op dressings, chronic dressings or minor first aid dressings. BandNet should not be used in multiple layers and should not be twisted.

- Stretches in both width and length
- Prevents unraveling
- Allows mobility and comfort for the patient
